The Boots

"I sell my boots and go with you on a coach just to be with you as you are a handle-less door without me my sweet little bird

I will sell handkerchiefs at the railroad station just to be with you as you are a handle-less door without me
my sweet little bird

I will eat without a table sleep without a pillow just to be with you...

I will sleep at the railroad station and wash a floor there just to be with you..."
